2. Contractual penalties may be cumulative, and the total maximum amount of the contractual penalty that can be claimed under the Agreement is the amount corresponding to 100% of the gross remuneration referred to in § 8 sec. 1. The provisions referred to in the preceding sentence shall not affect the right referred to in para. 5 of this paragraph.
 3. The Ordering Party reserves the right to cover claims for contractual penalties from the remuneration due to the Contractor or directly from the Contractor on the basis of the based on a demand for payment addressed to the Contractor, depending on the choice of the Ordering Party. The Contractor agrees to deduct the contractual penalties from remuneration. The deduction may take place unless the relevant provisions of law provide otherwise.
 4. The Contractor undertakes to pay the reserved contractual penalties to the account indicated by the Ordering Party in the debit note, within 21 days from the date of receipt of such a note, provided that this form of contractual penalty coverage is chosen by the Ordering Party, in accordance with the provisions of sec. 3.
 5. The Ordering Party has the right to claim damages exceeding the amount of the reserved contractual penalties on general terms.
 6. Termination of the Agreement (withdrawal from the Agreement or its termination) does not release the Contractor from the obligation to pay contractual penalties.
 7. The Contractor shall not be liable for the circumstances for which the Ordering Party is solely responsible.

Confidential information

1. The Parties jointly declare that any information obtained in the course of the performance of the Subject of the Agreement that the Parties acquired or implied, in particular any technical, technological or commercial information, will be treated as confidential and which are secret (confidential information). The parties declare that they undertake to keep secret, in particular, all documents, studies, materials and other information expressed in writing or in any other form, including information provided or made available as part of direct contacts between the Ordering Party's representatives and the Contractor regarding the Agreement.
2. Each Party undertakes:
 - i. not to disclose confidential information to other entities without the consent of the other Party, given in writing under pain of nullity;
 - ii. use confidential information only for the purposes of implementing the Agreement;
 - iii. not to duplicate confidential information to a greater extent than is necessary for the performance of the Agreement;

- iv. protect the received confidential information against unauthorized access to the extent necessary to maintain its confidential nature, and at least to the same extent as it treats its own business secret.
3. The Contractor is obliged to ensure compliance with the obligations set out in sec. 1-3 above by all its employees, associates, subcontractors and other entities that it will use in connection with the performance of the Agreement and will be responsible for compliance with these obligations by such entities, to the extent that it is responsible for its own obligations under this paragraph.
4. The recipient of the information will be released from the obligation to maintain the confidentiality of the information obtained in the case of commonly known information, and also if the obligation to disclose it results from a valid court order or official order issued by a competent authority within the scope of its competences resulting from generally applicable provisions of law. In any such case, before disclosing any confidential information, the recipient will be required to immediately inform the Party that disclosed the information or to whom it relates.
5. To the extent that the Contractor will, for the purposes of the performance of the Subject of the Agreement, process personal data, it undertakes to process them in a manner consistent with the current legal provisions regulating the protection of personal data, and in particular, it will inform the Ordering Party in the event of the need to conclude an appropriate agreement on the processing of personal data, including entrusting the processing of personal data.
6. The Parties to the Agreement will be bound by the provisions of the Agreement regarding confidentiality until the lapse of five years from the termination or expiry of the Agreement.

Ordering Party: e-mail:

Contractor: e-mail:

§ 12

Withdrawal from the Agreement and its termination

1. Regardless of the rights under Art. 456 of the Public Procurement Law, the Ordering Party, at its discretion, may withdraw from the Agreement, in whole or in part, when:
 - a) The Contractor performs the Agreement in a manner inconsistent with the Agreement, improperly or does not comply with the provisions of the Agreement and does not change the manner of performance of the Agreement or will not remove the deficiencies found by the Ordering Party despite being summoned to do so by the Ordering Party within the period specified in this request (the obligation to is used in situations in which, due to the nature of the deficiency, it can no longer be removed or its immediate removal was required);
 - b) the Contractor's delay in relation to the deadline specified in § 3 sec. 1 exceeds 10 days without proper justification;
 - c) the sum of the contractual penalties referred to in § 9 of the Agreement exceeds 20% of the gross remuneration amount specified in § 8 sec. 1;
 - d) if the Contractor makes a false declaration in the Agreement or as part of the Agreement, or an incomplete declaration that is not supplemented within the time limit set by the Ordering Party;
 - e) if liquidation proceedings have been initiated against the Contractor;
 - f) if the Contractor were to be replaced by another entity by succession requiring an amendment to the Agreement, in circumstances that could lead to a breach of Art. 455 par. 1 point 2 lit. b of the Public Procurement Law.
2. The Ordering Party's declaration of withdrawal from the Agreement will be drawn up in the form referred to in § 14 sec. 4 of the Agreement with justification. Withdrawal from the Agreement is possible within 30 days from the date on which the Ordering Party became aware of the reason justifying the withdrawal indicated in sec. 1.
3. Partial withdrawal from the Agreement has effects for the future. Withdrawal from the Agreement or its termination does not release the Contractor from the obligation to pay the contractual penalties provided for in the Agreement.
4. In the event of withdrawal from the Agreement or its termination, the Contractor may only be entitled to remuneration for the properly performed part of the Agreement. The Contractor and the Ordering Party undertake to draw up a report that will contain a description of the obligations performed under the Agreement until the date of withdrawal from the Agreement or its termination as a result of termination, together with their assessment in terms of the possibility of their acceptance and receipt by the Ordering Party, in particular by indicating the period or periods in which the performance of the Agreement was correct. In the event of the Contractor's failure to prepare such a protocol, the Ordering Party will have the right to draw up a unilateral acceptance protocol by a commission. The provisions of this paragraph shall apply to the Parties regardless of the fact of termination of the Agreement as a result of withdrawal or termination, whereby in the event of termination or withdrawal from the Agreement in part, this applies to the part covered by the termination or to which the withdrawal concerned.

Amendments to the Agreement

1. Amendment of the provisions of the Agreement, subject to the provisions of Art. 454-455 of the Public Procurement Law, it is possible in cases within the scope and under the conditions specified below.
2. In order to be valid, amendments to the Agreement require the form referred to in § 14 sec. 4.
3. It is possible to amend the Agreement:
 - 1) when compliance with the deadline for the performance of the obligation under the Agreement is impossible due to the occurrence of force majeure, which has a direct impact on the timeliness of the performance of the Subject of the Agreement;
 - 2) in the event of circumstances beyond the control of the Parties or which the Parties, with due diligence, were unable to avoid or foresee;
 - 3) when it becomes necessary to extend the deadline for the performance of the obligation under the Agreement, for organizational reasons attributable to the Ordering Party, the scope of the change - based on the circumstances set out in points 1-3, the contract completion date specified in § 3 sec. 1 by extending it, however, not longer than by 14 days in relation to the period specified in § 3 sec. 1 (with the exception of point 1 above, when the time limit may be extended by the time during which, due to the occurrence of force majeure, the performance of the Agreement would be impossible); the subject of the contract in a way that adapts it to the amendments resulting from the circumstances indicated in points 1-3 above, without changing the general nature of the contract; the manner of performing the Subject of the Agreement in a manner adapting it to the amendments resulting from the circumstances indicated in points 1 - 3 above;
 - 4) in the event of amendments in applicable law, causing the need to make when there are discrepancies or ambiguities in the meaning of the terms used in the Agreement, which cannot be removed in any other way, and the change will allow for the removal of discrepancies and clarification of the contract in order to clearly interpret its provisions by the Parties;
 - 5) the necessity to introduce amendments will be a consequence of amendments introduced in contracts between the Ordering Party and a party other than the Contractor, including the Ordering Party's supervising or financing institutions, which have a direct impact on the performance of the Subject of the Agreement;
 - 6) the need to introduce amendments will result from amendments to the guidelines, requirements or recommendations affecting the Subject of the Agreement, of the supervising or financing institution, in particular in the field of reporting;
 - 7) in the event of termination of the Software development or disclosure, that the Software License does not allow use from the Software and the device on which it is installed in a manner consistent with its intended use;
 - 8) common defects of the Software that prevent its safe use, the Ordering Party allows for a change consisting in the replacement of the net remuneration referred to in § 8 sec. 1 of the Agreement for a given product, a substitute product that meets all the requirements provided for in Appendix No. 1 to the Agreement, recommended by the producer or the Contractor in connection with the disclosure of defects. In this case, the Contractor is obliged to submit a declaration of the producer / distributor confirming the fact that the substitute product meets the requirements set out in Appendix No. 1 to the Agreement; scope of the change - based on the circumstances set out in points 4 - 8, the following may change: (i) the term of the contract specified in § 3 sec. 1 by extending it, but not longer than by 14 days, (ii) the subject of the contract in a way that adapts it to the amendments resulting from the circumstances indicated in points 4 - 8, without changing the general nature of the contract; the manner of performing the Subject of the Agreement in a manner adapting it to the amendments resulting from the circumstances indicated in points 4 - 8, remuneration (except for point 8).

4. The condition for introducing amendments is the occurrence of the circumstances specified in sec. 3 and a request by the Party relying on these circumstances to amend the Agreement.
5. It does not constitute an amendment to the Agreement, a change of persons referred to in § 11 or their contact details.
